

In The Name Of God

The Merciful and Most Compassionate

May God protect all human beings from various disasters, including ongoing pandemic of coronavirus disease (COVID-19).

Shaykh Fariduddin Attar

Attar of Nishapur

c. 1145 - c. 1221

- Today is the day to commemorate Shaykh Fariduddin Attar in the Iranian calendar.
- On this occasion, this version was dedicated to him as a famous Iranian poet, and theoretician of Sufism, and hagiographer.
- The Tadhkirat-ul-Awliyā (Memorial of the Saints), is a hagiographic collection of thirty-nine Sufi saints and their miracles by the twelfth–thirteenth-century Persian poet and mystic written by Attar as prose (Wikipedia,2020).
- He was martyred 618 AH during the Mongol invasion.

Preface

- The present version (4.17) contains 12839 slides with 1178.6 MB original file and 423.2 MB pdf file sizes.
- It's been ten and half years since the launch of this professional website.
- Many slides were replaced in order to update the files. Still there was ca 2% increase in the number of slides.
- Substantial changes to over 12000 slides are time consuming and overwhelming. I owe this to God.
- As a usual, I use this opportunity to thank my beloved wife Batul and my two daughters Amina and Anita for their love, patience, and encouragement.
- I also give my especial thanks to my respected Ph.D. supervisor Prof. H.C. Dube.
- Thanks to Eng. M. Zeidabadi Nejad for launching this site.

Nader Hassanzadeh
